1. If a person’s vision is described as “20/50”, what do the numbers “20” and “50” refer to? (1 pt)

2. Which two eye structures are primarily responsible for focusing light rays on the retina? (0.5 pt)

3. Fill in the blanks in this pathway of sound conduction through the major structures of the ear. (1 pt)

   pinna → external auditory canal → _______ → _______ → incus → _______ → oval window → _______ → auditory nerve

4. a. This ear structure assists in balance/equilibrium: ________________ (0.25 pt)

   b. This ear structure equalizes pressure in the middle ear: ________________ (0.25 pt)

5. Why did having a list of possible scents improve your ability to correctly identify them? (1 pt)

6. You tested several areas of skin during the two-point touch discrimination test. Which were the most sensitive and which the least sensitive? Why is there a difference, and why would it be important to have some skin areas more sensitive than others? (1 pt)